DEATH GRANT – EXPRESSION OF WISH

READ THESE NOTES CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THE ATTACHED FORM

The advantage of you nominating beneficiaries of any potential death grant is that it may be possible to make payment without waiting for your Estate to be settled and normally without any liability to Inheritance Tax.

Although the administrators of Essex Pension Fund will have the greatest regard to your wishes as indicated on the attached form, they are not legally bound by them because for the tax advantages to apply they must retain absolute discretion as to the distribution of the grant.

Before making any payment in accordance with your wishes, the administrators of Essex Pension Fund will consider whether there are any other parties who may have a claim on the death grant and could contest the intended payment. Should you wish to provide additional information to support your nomination; this can be entered on the reverse of the form.

Note that:

1. You may nominate whoever you would like to receive your death grant. A nominee can include a relative, partner, family friend or organisation such as a charity club or society.
2. Your nomination cannot be accepted and the form will be returned to you if:
 - a) it is not signed and dated
 - b) it is dated or received before you join Essex Pension Fund
 - c) it is post-dated
 - d) the proportions do not add up to 100%
3. A nomination will not be treated by Essex Pension Fund as being in force if at the time of a member's death:
 - a) The nominated beneficiary has died
 - b) The Fund is of the opinion that payment of the death grant to the nominated beneficiary is not reasonably practicable in all circumstances
 - c) The nominated beneficiary is a former spouse from whom you have since divorced, a former registered civil partner where the partnership has been dissolved, or a former cohabiting partner you no longer live with (if you wish to nominate a former spouse, registered civil partner, or cohabiting partner, a new expression of wish must be made and dated after the date of divorce or dissolution)
4. If you have more than one period of membership in Essex Pension Fund, your wishes will be applied to all of your pension records unless you complete a separate nomination form.
5. You should revise your expression of wish whenever your circumstances change by completing a further form, available from our website at www.essexpensionfund.co.uk
6. You will receive an acknowledgement once your pension record has been updated with your expression of wish
