Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

THE CHELMSFORD CITY COUNCIL (CREAMFIELD – CHELMSFORD CITY CENTRE)
PUBLIC SPACES PROTECTION ORDER 2022

The Chelmsford City Council (“the Council”) makes this Order under Part 4, section 59 of the 2014 Act, having consulted as required by section 72.

The order shall last for three years, ceasing on the 28th May 2024 and shall take effect on the following dates:

31st May 2022 to (and including) 7th June 2022
23rd May 2023 to (and including) 30th May 2023
21st May 2024 to (and including) 28th May 2024

It applies to the public place, “The Restricted Area” hatched and edged in red on the plan attached at Schedule 1 to the Order.

The Council is satisfied that activities have been carried out in the Restricted Area which have had a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality. Further, it is satisfied that the effect of these activities is or is likely to be of a persistent or continuing nature, is or is likely to be such as to make the activities unreasonable and justifies the restrictions imposed by this order.

The activities carried out are as follows:

1. sale of tickets, wrist bands, badges or any other items that would allow unauthorised access to the Creamfields Festival. This includes receiving payment for the temporary use of a wrist band, ticket or badge for the purpose of gaining entry; where this ticket, wristband or badge is then returned to the original seller.

For the purposes of this Order: -

- i) a ticket, wristband or badge is considered unauthorised where it has been resold, reused for the purpose of accessing the Creamfields Festival site, or is counterfeit, or stolen.

The Council therefore under section 59(4) prohibits within the Restricted Area:

1. the selling or exposing or offering for sale or hire of any article or the provision of any service which would or might enable any person to gain unauthorised access to the Creamfields Festival site e.g. tickets, wristbands, badges or any other item.

that any person in the restricted area, breaching the public spaces protection order shall surrender to a Constable, Police Community Support Officer, Council Enforcement Officer or any persons authorised by the Council, anything in their possession which is or which the Constable, Police Community Support Officer, Council Enforcement Officer or any person authorised by the Council, reasonably believes to be:

- i) a ticket, wristband, badge or any other item that would or might enable a person to gain unauthorised entry to the Creamfields Festival.

A Constable, Police Community Support Officer, Council Enforcement Officer or any person authorised by the council may dispose of anything surrendered under the above requirement in whatever way he or she thinks appropriate.

Failure without reasonable excuse to comply with the prohibitions and requirements imposed by this Order is a summary offence under section 67 of the 2014 Act.

A person guilty of an offence under section 67 of the 2014 Act is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale (currently £1,000).

A constable or an authorised person may under section 68 of the 2014 Act issue a fixed penalty notice to anyone he or she has reason to believe has committed an offence under section 67 of the 2014 Act in relation to this Order.

APPEALS

Any challenge to this order must be made in the High Court by an interested person within six weeks of it being made. An interested person is someone who lives in, regularly works in, or visits the restricted area. This means that only those who are directly affected by the restrictions have the power to challenge. The right to challenge also exists where an order is varied by the Council.

Interested persons can challenge the validity of this order on two grounds: that the Council did not have power to make the order, or to include particular prohibitions or requirements; or that one of the requirements of the legislation, for instance consultation, has not been complied with.

Where an application is made the High Court can decide to suspend the operation of the order pending the Court's decision, in part or in totality. The High Court has the ability to uphold the order, quash it, or vary it.
