

Register of Buildings of Local Value in Good Easter

Status:
Planning guidance

 Good Easter Parish

Design and conservation
01245 606294

michael.hurst@chelmsford.gov.uk

October 2026

Register of buildings of local interest

Good Easter

Armours Lane, Armours Farm

Farmhouse, timber framed and plastered, hipped plain tile clad roof. Eighteenth century or earlier.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest

Bedfords Farm Road, Golden Wells

Farmhouse, timber framed and plastered, hipped plain tile roof with gablets. Eighteenth century or earlier.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest

Clatterford End, Clatterford House

House, timber framed and plastered, hipped thatched roof. Eighteenth century or earlier. 1.5 and 2.5 storeys with gabled dormers.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest, group value with Oak Lodge and The Laurels (see page 2).

Register of buildings of local interest

Good Easter

Clatterford End, Oak Lodge

Cottage, timber framed and plastered, gabled plain tile clad roof. Seventeenth or eighteenth century origins. Front gabled porch with decorative barge boards and '1660' painted on the plaster.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest, group value with Clatterford House (see page 1) and The Laurels (see below).

Clatterford End, The Laurels

House, timber framed and plastered, gabled plain tile clad roofs. Early nineteenth century. Lower range to the north. Sash windows with small panes

Significance

Architectural and historic interest, group value with Clatterford House Oak Lodge (see above).

Fambridge End Road, Bridge House

House, timber framed and plastered, hipped slate clad roof. Mid-nineteenth century. Formerly the Hop Pole Public House.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest, group value with Farm Bridge, Ladyland and Fotesques (see below and page 3).

Fambridge End Road, Farm Bridge

Road bridge, red brick with arches and parapets, nineteenth century.

Significance

Group value with Bridge House, Ladyland and Fotesques (see above and page 3).

Register of buildings of local interest

Good Easter

Fambridge End Road, Ladyland

House, timber framed and plastered, hipped plain tile roof. Eighteenth century or earlier. Barn east of the clad in black weatherboard, similar date to house.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest, group value.

Famrbridge End Road, Fotescoes

House, timber framed and plastered house. Hipped slate clad roof. Sash windows with small panes. Early nineteenth century.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest. Group value with Bridge House, Ladyland and Farm Bridge.

Mill Road, Willow Cottage

Cottage, timber framed and plastered. Gabled thatched roof with eyebrow dormers. Eighteenth century.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest. Group value with Tye Green Cottage and Cobblers (grade II listed).

Register of buildings of local interest

Good Easter

Mill Road, Lucas Garden Cottage

Cottage, timber framed and plastered, gabled plain tile clad roofs, 2 and 2.5 storeys. Casement windows. early nineteenth century or earlier.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest

Imbers Barn, Souther Cross Road*

Barn, now a house, timber framed with black timber cladding, thatched roof with half hips, midstrey on the west elevation.

Significance

Group value with Falconers Hall farm buildings, Top Barn (grade I), St Andrews Church (grade II*), The Vicarage and Falconers Hall (see below and page 5).

Souther Cross Road, Farm buildings at Falconers Hall*

Farm buildings, 5-bay barn early nineteenth century, square granary late nineteenth century and stable on roadside eighteenth century or earlier with much re-used timber.

Significance

A good group of traditional farm buildings, group value with Top Barn (grade I listed), Imbirds (see above), Top Barn (grade 1), St Andrews Church (grade II*) and The Vicarage (see page 5).

Register of buildings of local interest

Good Easter

The Vicarage, Souther Cross Road***

Former vicarage, designed by McMurdie & Wagstaffe, 1870. Red brick with buff brick detailing. Decorative chimneys and barge boards. Sash windows.

Significance

Architectural interest, group value with Farm Buildings (see page 4) and Falconers Hall (see below), Imbers (see page 4) Top Barn (grade I listed) and St Andrews Church (grade II* listed).

Falconers Hall, Fountain Road***

House, red brick, plain tile clad roofs with gables. Stone windows surrounds and detailing. Decorative chimneys and gable. Mid-nineteenth century. Sash windows with mullions and transoms fronting them.

Significance

Architectural interest, group value with Farm Buildings (see page 4) and The Vicarage (see above), Imbers (see page 4) Top Barn (grade I listed) and St Andrews Church (grade II* listed).

Old School House, School Road***

School, now house. Brick, now painted. Gabled slate roofs. Sash windows. mid nineteenth century.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest.

Register of buildings of local interest

Good Easter

The Newarks Road, Little Newarks

House, timber framed with plain tile hanging to the first floor and exposed framing with brick infill to the ground floor. Hipped plain tile clad roof. Casement windows. Eighteenth century or earlier.

Significance

Architectural and historic interest.

Wares Road, Wares Farmhouse

Farmhouse, red brick with buff brick detailing. Hipped plain tile clad roof. Gabled porch with exposed timber framing. C.1880.

Significance

Architectural interest.