

Office for National Statistics 2011 Census

English (EN) | Cymraeg \(CY\)
Release calendar | Methodology | Media | About | Blog

Home	Business, industry and trade	Economy	Employment and labour market	People, population and community	Taking part in a survey?
------	------------------------------	---------	------------------------------	----------------------------------	--------------------------

Home > Census > 2011 Census

2011 Census

Census statistics help paint a picture of the nation and how we live. They provide a detailed snapshot of the population and its characteristics, and underpin funding allocation to provide public services. The population of England & Wales on Census Day, 27 March 2011, was 56,075,912.

2011 Census data

Before you browse for 2011 Census statistics, select the most appropriate type of data.

Why we have a census

A census is a unique source of detailed socio-demographic statistics that underpins national policymaking with population estimates and projections to help allocate funding and plan ...

How our census works

Find out about the project to plan and run the decennial census in England and Wales.

Confidentiality

Consultations, users and local partners

2011 UK censuses

This document is available online via the following link: <https://www.ons.gov.uk/census/2011census>